

ADG is currently looking for a Project Manager. Successful candidate must have the following qualifications and experience.

Department: Construction

Reports to: The Director of Construction/Project Management

Qualifications & Experience:

- Position prefers a four year Construction Management/Engineering degree plus a minimum of 4 years Construction Management experience, or an equivalent combination of training and experience.
- Strong management and organizational skills.
- Project management and budgetary control.
- Ability to oversee projects from bid preparation to final acceptance by customer.
- Strong written and verbal communication skills.
- Must be familiar working with Timberline, Microsoft Project, and MS Office software.

Our construction projects are located throughout the United States, some travel will be required. ADG offers competitive benefits, salary commensurate with experience; include salary requirement in your response and reference: JOB: CPM012016.

Submit your resume to: kim.bishop@aquaticgroup.com