

Field Installation/Service Technician

Aquatic Development Group (ADG) a leader in the design/build waterpark and amusement attraction manufacturing industry which requires skilled technicians/mechanics to join our field installation and service team. This is a full-time, permanent position with an established Albany, NY area company.

Successful candidates must have the following qualifications and experience:

- Strong mechanical skills. Electrical controls and/or welding experience are a plus.
- Ability and willingness to travel extensively throughout North America, as required. This position requires a minimum of 50% travel either regionally or long distance for up to two weeks at a time. Travel expenses are company-paid.
- Ability to read and understand technical drawings and prints.
- Generate daily field reports and job site photos.
- Must be willing to work as a part of a team, independently and/or supervised.
- Field work includes indoor as well as outdoor jobs.
- Must have good problem solving and communication skills.
- Valid driver's license is necessary.
- Must be comfortable using Microsoft Office software.

ADG offers a competitive benefit package including 401k, health insurance, and paid time off.

Salary commensurate with experience.

For additional information, visit our website at: www.aquaticgroup.com. ADG is an equal employment opportunity employer.